Disclosure Regarding Short Sale Negotiations

This document serves as an explanation and disclosure regarding the property located at:

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

The purchase of your property will be made possible because we will negotiate with the Lender(s) to have them take less than what was owed as a payoff. In some cases, not always, the Lender with who we negotiated with will require you as the original mortgagor pay the difference of what was remaining owed as a deficiency judgment.

WE ARE DISCLOSING THE FOLLOWING:

- I. Perfect Title & Escrow, Inc. d/b/a Short Sales For America is not aware whether the Lender(s) in question will pursue a deficiency judgment.
- II. If negotiations are unsuccessful and we cannot close and consequently the property goes to sale, the seller(s) agree to hold harmless Perfect Title & Escrow, Inc. d/b/a Short Sales For America and his, her, their, or its agents, servants, successors, heirs, executors, administrators and all other person(s), corporation, firms, associations or partnerships of and for any and all claims, actions, causes of action, demands, rights, damages, costs, loss of service, expenses and compensation whatsoever, which the undersigned now has/have or which may hereafter accrue on account of or in any way growing out of any and all known and unknown, foreseen and unforeseen events.
- III. In the event the short sale is successful and there is no deficiency judgment the discount received may become a taxable event to you. This may or may not be disclosed or followed through by your Lender. It is advised you speak to a tax professional to discuss any tax consequences of your short sale payoff.
- IV. Perfect Title & Escrow, Inc. d/b/a Short Sales For America is in no way acting as a "Foreclosure Consultant" and has in no way promised the seller they would guarantee payments, guarantee to bring the loan current, guarantee that the property will be paid off or kept out of foreclosure.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS READ THE FOREGOING RELEASE AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS IT.

SAMPLE HARDSHIP LETTER

To Whom It May Concern:

We are writing this letter to explain our current financial situation. Since the loss of our main source of income along with rising costs and expenses we have been unable to maintain the mortgage payments on our residence or support our household which includes ourselves and our children, John and Mary, ages 13 and 11. We have both searched for part time work but no jobs can be found. We are currently making arrangements to vacate the property and are researching different family members we may be able to live with short term while we try and get back on our feet.

It is difficult for us to look into our children's eyes and explain to them why they must leave behind their rooms, schools and friends. Times are so unbelievably hard and we worked so long to finally buy a home that it is unimaginable that we now have to walk away from it and leave it all behind.

Because of our financial crisis we have been unable to maintain the property and it has fallen into a state of disrepair. Appliances are not working, the air conditioning system is in need of replacement and cracks have formed in many of the walls and flooring. We are ashamed of how we have let this property decline but when it came down to a choice between fixing the house or feeding our children, we really had no choice at all.

Please consider our situation and work with us to help rebuild our lives.

Sincerely,

John Doe
Jane Doe

Although handwritten letters are not mandatory they are recommended because it is more personal. This letter is supposed to be an outcry to the lender for help.

Hardship letter should contain:

- 1) Reasons why you fell behind in your payments (Ex. Loss of job, health problems, interest rate hike, etc.)
- 2) Why you will be unable to get caught up with your payments in the foreseeable future.
- 3) Efforts you have made to bring your loan current.
- 4) The impact this crisis has had on your family.
- 5) Any repairs or maintenance issues the property may have.
